Oise Canal Crossed on Wide Front From Etreux Southward in Spite of Heavy Resistance

Huns Fight Desperately to Ward off Serious Menace to German Troops in Territory for Many Miles to North and South

WITH THE ALLIED ARMIES IN NORTHERN FRANCE, Oct. 21.—Cyclists have reached Haulchin, on the Scheldt, less than three miles southwest of the important city of Valenciennes. The infantry is pouring after them.

The Oise canal has been crossed on a wide front from Etreux southward against the heaviest resistance. Here, as elsewhere all along this part of the hattlefront the Germans are fighting with the realization that every foot of ground lost increases the menace to their contracts for many miles to the north and south.

British Capture Amerval
LONDON, Oet. 21.—The British forces fighting north of Le

Right and Might.

The Cologo Gazette says Germany is ready for a peace of right, but not for a peace of might. But the world into the belief that right is right discoitated from might, and that, given the might, a nation or a group of nations has a right discoitated from might, and that, given the might, a nation or a group of nations has a right discoitated from might, and that, given the might, a nation or a group of nations has a right discoitated from might, and that, given the might, a nation or a group of nations has a right discoitated from might, and for a trendance on and isolation and the same of a lither developed cases. It is pre-time and draw a line of distinction, as the Gazette does, between right, and the formany to have been decided as a same of all the rest, but what is to be indeed by the standard it has set up. A durable peace can only be secured when Allied might impose upon Germany that.
